In the not-too-distant future, in what was once the old City of New York, megacorporations have taken over everything. Now even the internet is owned, and the only way to transmit sensitive information is by a network of highly skilled couriers called “ data runners ” who run it over the sneakernet. It is a dangerous gig in a dirty world, but Jack Nill doesn ’ t have much choice in the matter. A brilliant young math whiz and champion of parkour, Jack must become one of these data runners in order to get his father out of a major gambling debt. When a mysterious stranger loads Jack ’ s chip with a cryptic cargo that everybody wants, he soon becomes the key figure in a conspiracy that could affect the entire North American Alliance. Now it ’ s all up to Jack. With the help of his best friend, Dexter, and a girl who runs under the name Red Tail, Jack will have to use all his skills to outrun the retrievers and uncover the truth before they catch him and clip him for good.

Life has gotten a bit boring for Zuria Johnston, and with the exception of her Friday nights out with her best, flamboyant friend, Chase, and her job as a guidance counselor, she seems to have hit a rut. After a rough break-up with her longtime boyfriend, Manuel, her prospects of finding a man also seem pretty bleak. That is, until she connects with her poetic crush, Amir, and he opens her eyes to a world of romance and passion that she didn't know existed. She discovers what it feels like to be loved as a real woman should, and to overcome the difficulties of being a young, strong, black woman who is afraid to have her heart broken for a second time. The thrill of new romance seems to fill the emptiness in her life, but her old life isn't as easy to escape as she first thought. Mistakes that she thought she had left behind threaten to undo everything that she has begun to build in this new chapter of her life, but she isn't the only one battling the demons of her past. The poetic and passionate Amir harbors some dark secrets of his own, and when the truth begins to come out, the connection between her two lovers, old and new, may end her short reign of happiness before it ever fully begun. With love from one man and sworn vengeance from another, Zuria is trapped in the middle, trying desperately to make her way through the tangled troubles of family, love, and happiness. The problem is, she might lose more than the man of her dreams. As this complex and spellbinding story reaches its peak, Zuria will have to risk mind, body, and soul for herself and the people she loves, but will that final risk mean achieving the life she'd always dreamed of? Or will she end up making the ultimate sacrifice?

The old masters of dealt only with the static features of the positional rules of chess. But these are insufficient to explain the basics of chess. The problem is that chess, like in other sciences, has undergone a dynamic revolution, but chess literature doesn't yet reflect it. In this major work Aagaard accessibly explains the rules of attack (the exploitation of a dynamic advantage), balanced between understandable examples, and deep analysis. Five years in the making, this book deals with weak kings, sacrifices, various minor attacking themes, intuitive sacrifices, opposite castling, modern king hunts, and enduring initiative.

Watch Senator Graham on The Colbert Report! The Colbert Report Mon - Thurs 11:30pm / 10:30c She Said, CIA Said - Bob Graham colbertnation.com Click here to preview chapter 1. Professors: Order your exam copy today by clicking on the &BAD:"Request an Exam Copy&BAD:" link above. Would you teach someone to play basketball using just chalkboard diagrams? Or would you get them on the court and have them play? In basketball, the answer is easy&BAD:—you do both. So why teach politics only as a spectator sport? Senator Bob Graham believes that students should expand on their classroom learning about the political system: he spurs them to hit the court and actually play the game. If students work on an issue they care about, politics will become a meaningful and positive experience. This short, how-to guide takes students out of theoretical discussions of policy and into a world where they can affect change. Graham&BAD: ' s goal is to have students identify a problem, and then walk them through each step from researching the issue, to getting others involved, to engaging the media. Each chapter starts with a real case, showing citizens tackling a step in the process, and ends with a summary checklist and a series of questions that help students put Graham&BAD: ' s game plan in action. By offering students concrete guidance, an array of resources, and advice for troubleshooting and overcoming barriers, this compact user&BAD: ' s guide gets students way beyond textbook learning. Thirty-five years ago, as a member of the Florida Legislature, Bob Graham took on the challenge of civic education for eighteen weeks at a Miami-area high school. His time as both a governor and a senator has only strengthened his resolve to pique students&BAD: ' curiosity about politics and teach them to get what they want from government.
