The Mission by Jason Myers I thought was a good contemporary novel. The Mission is about Kaden Norris, a 15 year old farm boy who lives a sheltered life. When his brother dies in Iraq, Kaden's mother decides to send him with his cousin James, an author, in San Francisco. There, Kaden is introduced to the adult life.

The Mission Jason Myers

There is more than one author with this name Jason Myers was born in 1980 and raised on a farm ten miles outside of the small town of Dysart, Iowa. After he graduated high school, he moved to San Francisco where he studied film at the Academy of Art University. It was there, after taking a Screenwriting 3 class that he met and studied under the inspiring instructor and author James Dalessandro.

YA Book Geek: The Mission by Jason Myers

This book was the first I had read from Jason Myers, then I realized all of his books are the same.. drugs, sex, lies, scandal. It was entertaining, although some parts were so forced that it was obnoxious to read. Also, I feel like this book in particular tends to get lost in the details.

Jason Myers Quotes (Author of Exit Here.)

Jason Myers is a pretty good author. Although this story is like super dark, its a good story, "the mission" was my favorite by Jason Myers. But its still a great book, and I can't wait to read his next one.
